Speaker Howell Announces Delegate, Citizen Appointments to State Boards, Joint Committees and Commissions

RICHMOND, VA – Speaker of the Virginia House of Delegates William J. Howell (R-Stafford) today announced his decisions on the 2009 appointments of delegates and citizens to over 100 state boards, commissions and joint House-Senate committees.

“The men and women who have volunteered to serve the Commonwealth in these key positions reflect the diversity and accomplishment as well as the depth and breadth of the character and skills of the people of Virginia,” said Speaker Howell. “By taking on an active and public role in their government, these hard-working individuals give of their own time and talents to enrich and strengthen our communities and our Commonwealth. I commend each of these fine individuals for their willingness to serve.”
